

DISABILITY CULTURE FAITH AND SECULARISM

CREATING SPACES FOR INCLUSION

How do different faith-based and secular communities address issues of disability, inclusion, and access? Please join us for a vibrant conversation with students, chaplains, faculty, staff, and community members. Everyone is welcomed.

American Sign Language [ASL] interpretation and Communication Access Realtime Translation [CART] will be provided. Light refreshments will be served.

If you require accommodations, please email: smburd@syr.edu by April 11, 2012.

Co-sponsored by the Interfaith Student Council, the Secular Student Association, the Disability Student Union [DSU] and the SU Disability Cultural Center
